Tackle shop rebate

About the program and how to claim

The Tackle Shop Rebate program offers Western Australians who have a current Recreational Fishing from Boat Licence (RFBL) a rebate of up to $50 on fishing gear purchased from participating independent tackle shops.

The rebate program is part of the government's Fisheries Support Package to support the recovery of demersal fish stocks.

You can help by diversifying your fishing to sustainable, alternative species. Your local tackle shop can provide advice about alternative fishing opportunities and recommend the best gear for the job.

To claim the rebate, you must:

- hold a valid Recreational Fishing from Boat Licence (RFBL) at the time of claim
- be a WA resident
- provide an eligible tax invoice from a participating retailer*
- submit your rebate before 17 November 2026, or before the claim cap is reached
- comply with DPIRD's Terms and Conditions*.

*Visit dpird.wa.gov.au/TSR for the list of participating tackle shops, Terms and Conditions, FAQs, and more information.
